

Times-Dispatch $4,000 Prize Contest

Unusual Activity Shown in Times-Dispatch Prize Contest

Thousands of Votes Issued Every Day. Contestants Taking Lively Interest.

Several new contestants in all three classes entered last week. It is not too late for you or your organization to enter. There is plenty of time and opportunity to win with a little concerted effort. Use the products advertised and save the labels, wrappers, cartons, etc.

We publish below the vote standing of all contestants up to the close of business Friday. Be sure and read each advertisement carefully, or you may overlook an important announcement.

The following organizations have entered the Contest and earnestly appeal to all of their friends to help them. Labels, wrappers, etc., should be sent by mail or messenger to the Contest Headquarters, 102 North Seventh Street. Please be sure and state who they are from, and to what organization they are to be credited. It is important that you mark your package plainly.

Karo

The National Syrup

THERE are thousands of pantries in this country never without a generous supply of Karo. Last year, the housewives of America used over sixty million cans of Karo. If you are one of these you know how popular Karo is with your family; how good it is on cakes, waffles, hot biscuits and bread; how everybody enjoys it. Perhaps you don't know, though, what a valuable aid Karo is in cooking, and what delicious candies are made with it. If this is the case, send your name on a post card for our valuable Corn Products Cook Book. It will be sent to you FREE.
